

Coorg, the Land Beautiful.

Rising from the plains like a sentinel of hope is Coorg. Famous for its pretty women, honey, coffee, spices and gossip, Coorg was choice to the British in bygone days.

Forests with wildlife, mountains and verdant plantations of coffee and spices make up this unique land. Home to the race of the Kodavas or Coorgs, great history was writ here from the days of the Rajas, the British and Tipu Sultan. The Coorgs, as a race are unparalleled. With one-of-a-kind customs, culture and dress, the race stands out as unique in India's cultural diversity. It's capital, Madikeri is a sought after visitor destination.

The people, like the land are known for their hospitality and kindness. In the true spirit of the land itself.
